A Contemporary Countryside Retreat in the Algarve

Nestled in the tranquil embrace of the picturesque Algarve countryside, this award-winning minimalist villa stands as a remarkable testament to architectural brilliance, historic charm, and contemporary luxury living. Seamlessly merging an old farmhouse with cutting-edge design, this exceptional property is a true work of art – refined, sustainable, and exclusive down to the finest detail.

Sustainably constructed with external cork insulation, the villa ensures a naturally balanced indoor climate complemented by a passive ventilation system, delivering year-round comfort and energy efficiency.

Upon arrival, electric gates open to reveal beautifully landscaped gardens that blend effortlessly with the surrounding countryside. Fragrant local flora lines the approach to the house, where a sle
